

Fraser Burrill

Fraser is an independent director and sits on the Board and Finance and Risk Committee. He is a Bachelor of Law and a Chartered Accountant having qualified at PWC having specialised in computer audit. After leaving PWC, Fraser spent 30 years in senior roles in commerce including Northern Europe Finance Director at Duracell, Integration Director at Gillette creating the shared service platform for all UK group companies and Finance Director and COO at SONY UK. After leaving industry, Fraser became Finance Director and COO at Ravensbourne University London, the UK's newest university where we was integral in helping the institution achieve university status.