

Freya Guinness

Freya is an Independent Director for ISI. She is currently Director Corporate Operations and Organisational Development at the Office of Rail and Road where she is responsible providing strategic and operational leadership across all of ORR's corporate operations. She has previously held a number of roles in other regulatory organisations including the Competition and Markets Authority and Ofcom as well as working for 17 years in the private sector. Freya is Chair of Governors at a primary school in SW London where she has served for 15 years and through 5 Ofsted inspections.