

Phil Beach CBE

Phil was appointed as an Independent Director in March 2019. He spent 30 years in the Royal Air Force, initially training and operating as a Tornado Fast Jet navigator before commanding operations at home and abroad. After leaving the Royal Air Force in 2014, Phil joined Ofqual, the qualifications regulator where he initially focused on the reform of GCSE and A levels. More recently, Phil has been leading the organisation's regulation of all vocational and technical qualifications, including the reform of apprenticeships and the introduction of T Levels.