

Robert Okunnu

Robert Okunnu is a strategic communications leader with over 18 years' experience across a wide mix of organisations and sectors. He is currently Director of Policy and External Affairs at the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health and oversees the College's policy, media, public affairs, digital and creative media teams.

Robert's extensive experience spans prior leadership roles in private and public sector organisations such as Water UK, Tesco PLC, and the pharmaceutical company MSD. He was also previously Head of Public Affairs at the British Medical Association. He led the BMA's in-house team in campaigning aimed at the Westminster Parliament, Government, EU institutions and other stakeholders.

Robert is a Chartered Institute of Public Relations (CIPR) Chartered PR Practitioner. He also serves as a committee member on the CIPR's Public Affairs Group.